MICHELIN GUIDE SINGAPORE: OUR PICK OF THE CITY'S STARRIEST RESTAURANTS

September saw the publication of the third edition of Michelin Singapore guide and among the glittering constellation of restaurants to win stars are these LUXE faves. While some require a serious flex of the AmEx, others are downright affordable. Bibs on, tuck in!

© Candlenut

THE DEMPSEY COOKHOUSE & BAR & CANDLENUT

Mingle with the fashion set at tropical villa Dempsey Cookhouse, host to Jean-Georges Vongerichten's fresh, zingy palate-pleasers. A veritable scene spot, Cookhouse is abuzz at weekends, so be sure to book ahead (or walk in and nab a pew at the bar). Over at nearby Candlenut, Malcolm Lee's elevated Baba-Nyonya fare earned the Singaporean chef a gong as the world's first Michelin-starred Peranakan restaurant.

IMPERIAL TREASURE SUPER PEKING DUCK

© Imperial Treasure

Sibling Imperial Treasure Fine Teochew Cuisine (Orchard) might dazzle with its Michelin star proper but this glowing golden jewel also earned a nod from Bib Gourmand in this year's list. Like it says on the tin, Peking duck is the highlight (served and carved at the table) but the fine Cantonese menu also covers barbecue and dim sum. Slick service.

TIPPLING CLUB

© Tippling Club

Ryan Clift's envelope-pushing tour de force spans three converted shophouse units in hip nabe Tanjong Pagar. Tongue-titillating plates are paired with equally inventive cocktails like PB+J, made with peanut vodka, cassis and marshmallow. Book a seat at the counter to watch your dishes being assembled in the kitchen. Zing!

MICHELIN GUIDE SINGAPORE: OUR PICK OF THE CITY'S STARRIEST RESTAURANTS

NOURI

© Nouri

Progressive pan-handler Ivan Brehm's slick yet homely dining room continues to wow foodies and Monsieur Michelin alike. Expect complex plates which draw on Brehm's eclectic Euro-Brazilian-Mid-East heritage and globetrotting experience – he'll happily share the story behind each dish.

72 Amoy Street / +65 6221 4148 / lunch Tue-Fri, dinner Mon-Sat / nouri.com.sg

THEVAR

© Thevar

Penang-born Indian maestro Mano Thevar's soulful reinterpretations of South-Asian flaves deftly sit between street eats and more robust fare. Add in craft 'tails to pair and buzz locale on hipanista Keong Saik St.

9 Keong Saik Rd / 5pm-midnight Tue-Sat / +65 6904 0838 / thevar.sg

ODETTE

© Odettes

Julien Royer's contemporary take on classic Gallic amid dreamy-creamy interiors was only one of two Singapore restaurants to earn 3 Michelin stars this year (the other is fine-dine stalwart Les Amis). Set menus only and be prepared to book at least 5 weeks ahead.

THE SONG OF INDIA

© The Song of India

Outside, is a shuttered black n' white mansion, but step inside and a sumptuous salon accented with swathes of silk, dramatic lighting and modern art awaits. Settle in with the well-heeled Indian crowd for a divine spice fest drawing on recipes from across the subcontinent. Order at least one tandoor cooked dish.

DAY 1

AFTERNOON-EVENING

CHRISTMAS LIGHTS

Yes, you're in the tropics, but that doesn't stop Singapore pulling out the razzle-dazzle for Christmas. Orchard Road is famous for its elaborate street lights; nearby Tanglin Mall recreates the magic of a wintry Christmas with its festive garden and artificial snow. Over at Marina Bay Gardens, see the flora and fauna truly sparkle at its annual Christmas Wonderland.

DINNER

ARTEMIS GRILL & SKY LOUNGE

Perched 40 storeys high, this glamazon fine-diner sees Chef Oliver Hyde's sustainable Med plates and the chic greige decor more than matched by the heavenly skyline views. Better still, go during festive season to dine on special Christmas menus starring the likes of Iberico pork with marinated prunes and grilled whole turbot. Reservation is essential.

NIGHT

LULU'S LOUNGE

Flit among bright young things at this vintage-esque in/out scene spot where no two nights are the same. Burlesque, live music, roaming performers and stellar pours create a decadent, anything-goes atmos.

DAY 2

MORNING

SENTOSA WALK

Ease your way into the day with a gentle amble around Sentosa's car-free walking, jogging and cycling trails. There are several to choose from (see sentosa.com for maps) – our fave is the lesser-explored Coastal Trail. This gentle 2km path weaves past natural beaches, coastal forest and the historic Fort Siloso.

Check your LUXE app for addresses, contact info and maps.

LUNCH

© LaBrezza

FESTIVE FREE-FLOW BRUNCH

Workout complete, now it's time to eat! Grab your gang and celebrate the festive season with a lavish brunch buffet – Mezza9 at Grand Hyatt, The Line at Shangri-La and LaBrezza at St Regis, and Sentosa's 1-V:U are among the city's finest for yuletide feasting, accompanied by free-flow fizz, natch.

NIGHT

1-ALTITUDE

Zip over to Singapore's original sky-high bar/club where top DJs and stellar pours are backdropped by the jaw-dropping, megawatt views. If you're in town for New Year's Eve, book ahead for a spot at this top firework watching spot and welcome 2020 like a rockstar.
